Unit 3 - The Good Life - Mill

Not all terms are from the text - others are just useful to know/understand The page number is a reference to some printed versions. But in general the terms appear on the list in the order they appear in the text.

Word & Term	Page	Definition
Liberty	80	The Freedom to think, act, or live without unnecessary restrictions, as long as others are not harmed principle	80	An idea or rule that guides what you do compulsion	80	Feeling forced to doe something or being forced to do something - can be by law or social pressure.
means	80	Ways of doing something coercion	80	Forcing someone to do something, pressuring or threatening collectively	80	Doing something as a group self-protection	80	Defending yourself form harm forbear	80	Stopping yourself form doing something remonstrating	80	Persuading someone to act differently entreating	80	Asking someone (begging) to act differently amenable	80	Open to being influenced or controlled absolute	80	Total or complete – no exceptions sovereign	80	Having control over yourself or being independent doctrine	80	Belief system faculties	80	A persons physical or mental abilities external injury	80	Being harmed by others nonage	80	Immaturity – being warrant/warranted	80	Justified, a reason expedients	80	Practical methods used to achieve a goal Despotism	80	Leaders wo use unlimited power barbarians	80	A term used by Mill to describe societies that are seen as uncivilized or undeveloped. anterior	80	Earlier in time implicit	80	Understanding something without it being directly stated to you Akbar or Charlemagne	81	Historical rulers who used strong leadership to improve their societies.
Non-compliance	81	Not following orders justifiable	81	Can be reasonably accepted forego	81	To go without something - you can forego lunch for example utility	81	Usefulness or a benefit - in context this is what is good for society subjection	81	being controlled by someone or something spontaneity	81	Acting freely, spur of the moment Prima facie	81	A Latin term that means 'at first sight' or a first impression disapprobation	81	strong criticism or disapproval

Beneficence	81	An act of kindness Interposing	81	stepping in to protect / intervening Fellow-creatures	81	Other humans ill-usage	81	Not using something well, could be treating an other unfairly Justly accountable	81	Being responsible for your actions - fairness de-jure amenable	81	Legally responsible for something, e.g. a teacher being responsible for class Special expediences	81	specific reasons or justifications for an act or idea discretion	81	Making a decision based on your own judgement, being able to decide Conscience	81	A person's sense of right and wrong - guiding actions
Vacant judgement seat	81	Have to judge something for yourself Sphere of action	81	Being free to act in that area.
Contingency	82	A possible future event or plan, a back up Region of human liberty	82	aspects of our lives that should have complete freedom Inward domain of conscience	82	A person's private thoughts sentiment	82	A feeling or opinion speculative	82	in theory, a guess of sorts, ideas based on things that are not necessarily provable theological	82	The study of religion Pursuits	82	Activities - things you do Impediment	82	Being prevented from doing something Absolute	82	Total and complete - no exceptions Unqualified	82	Not having the ability or experience to be able to do something or comment on something